DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see Remarks, filed June 02, 2006, with respect to the rejection under 35 U.S.C. §102(a) have been fully considered and are persuasive. The 102(a) of claims 9-22 has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 9-22 are rejected under 35 USC §103(a). This rejection is set forth in the prior Office action mailed on March 01, 2006.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed on June 02, 2006 with regard to the rejection under 35 U.S.C. §103(a) have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants' arguments are not persuasive, because as indicated in previous action, the kneading of a pulp that is going to be deinked is well known in the art and the Scott et al. reference was indicated just as an evidence of the facts, more evidence is now presented in the PTO-892 for attached to the office action and for a more explicit evidence, see

Art Unit: 1731

Back et al., US Patent No. 5,582,681, see column 3, lines 42-49. Note that the test for obviousness is not whether the features of a secondary reference may be bodily incorporated into the structure of the primary reference; nor is it that the claimed invention must be expressly suggested in any one or all of the references. Rather, the test is what the combined teachings of the references would have suggested to those of ordinary skill in the art. See In re Keller, 642 F.2d 413, 208 USPQ 871 (CCPA 1981). The pre-kneading of secondary fibers serves the purpose of softening the bonding between the fibers and the ink-particles, i.e., the rubbing action dislodge some of the inks particles and assist in the separation of inks from the fibers. Therefore, one of ordinary skill in the art would have reasonable expectation of success if a kneading stage is performed before the actual de-inking steps of the cited reference, Virtanen. Moreover, the addition of any known unit operation within the stage(s), kneading for this particular case, of the prior art is within the levels of routineer in the art, absent a showing of unexpected results.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

Art Unit: 1731

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
